

Did you know? On January 1, 1752 Betsy Ross was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Her name when she was born was Elizabeth Griscom. According to historic legend, needle worker Betsy Ross created the first stars and stripes flag in 1775, under instructions from George Washington.