

ARIZONA WOODPECKER

Coloring Page

The Arizona Woodpecker is found mainly in Mexico. It barely crosses over into Arizona and New Mexico. It is different than most woodpeckers because it has a brown body and spotted underbody. The Arizona Woodpecker starts pecking at the bottom of the tree and spirals up the tree finding insects to eat along the way. They prefer pine and oak trees.

BirdWatchingAcademy.com