

A black and white line drawing of wheat stalks with a central text box. The wheat stalks are arranged in a circular pattern around the text box, with some stalks extending towards the corners of the page. The text box is a simple, irregular shape with a double-line border. The text inside the box is centered and reads: "Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen."

“Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.”

Ephesians 3:20-21