

Wood Violet

- The wood violet (Viola papilionacea) blooms March through June. It is one of the first plants to bloom in early spring.
- It was made the state flower of Wisconsin on Arbor Day 1909.
- It is edible and is used in salads or as cooked greens.