

California Poppy

- the California Poppy is a beautiful golden poppy that covered the hills of California when the state was first settled
- delicate flowers bloom early each spring.
- it was made the state flower of California on March 2, 1903.