

Do you know why the Irish flag is green, white & orange?

The flag is intended to symbolize the inclusion and hoped-for union of the people of different traditions on the island of Ireland, regardless of ethnic origin, religion or political conviction. Green represents the Catholics, Orange for Protestants, and white for living together in Peace.

HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY

©DHC
2014