

A black and white line drawing of a stylized face. The face is composed of simple, bold outlines for the eyes, nose, and mouth. It is surrounded by several large, irregular, overlapping shapes that resemble a distorted or fragmented face, possibly representing a mask or a psychological state. The overall style is minimalist and graphic.