

The average
3 year old has 10x the number of brain cells
as the average adult.
As we learn, our bodies
"prune" the brain cells that we don't use.

But if you stop using them. they go away...