

Twas the Night Before Christmas

Twas the night before Christmas and all thru the house, not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.

All the stockings were hung by the chimney with care In the hope that St. Nicholas soon would be there.

Then what to my
wondering eyes should appear,
A miniature sleigh
and eight tiny reindeer.
A little old driver
so lively and quick,
I knew in a moment
it must be St. Nick.

And more rapid than eagles
his reindeer all came
As he shouted, "On Dasher"
and each reindeer's name.
And so up to the housetop
the reindeer soon flew,
with the sleigh full of toys
and St. Nicholas too.

Down the chimney he came with a leap and a bound He was dressed all in fur and his belly was round He spoke not a word but went straight to his work And filled all the stockings then turned with a jerk.

And laying his finger aside of his nose, then giving a nod up the chimney he rose But I heard him exclaim as he drove out of sight "Merry Christmas to all and to all a Good Night".
