

EXPLORE THE INTERNET

with your parents or another adult. Visit websites that are made just for kids.

Ask for permission before you go online, and talk to a parent after about what you learned, what websites you visited, and who you chatted with.