

Yellow Jessamine

- Pretty, five petalled yellow flowers bloom profusely on this vine each spring - the vine climbs up and around trees and fences.
- The lovely fragrance is similar to that of jasmine and is especially strong in the morning.
- it was made the state flower of South Carolina on February 1, 1924.