

COLORING BOOK OF CELTIC LANDS: WALES

Wales is on the west coast of central England. The national symbol of Wales is the daffodil. One of the most popular birds associated with the country is the puffin. Fine Welsh woolens come from a variety of sheep, the most unusual being the Jacob Sheep. This breed has four to six horns!

