

The term endangered species means plants or animals that are threatened with extinction. What causes animals to become endangered? Many animals are threatened by how humans use the Earth. Name some endangered animals. What can we do to protect them?

Here are some endangered animals. If they could talk, what would they say? What would you say to them?