

Mississippi State Flower

The magnolia is a fragrant white flower from the tree of the same name. In 1900, schoolchildren in Mississippi were asked to vote for a state flower. Out of forty-two flowers, the magnolia won by a landslide. It was later adopted officially in 1938. The flower and tree it comes from are named for French Botanist Pierre Magnol.

© REALLY BIG COLORING BOOKS®, INC. | COLORINGBOOK.COM
ALL RIGHTS RESERVED

©2022 Really Big Coloring Books®, Inc.
All rights reserved.