

WOODROW WILSON
Term: 1913 - 1921
Born: Virginia
Political Party: Democrat

DARK HAIR
DARK EYES

Woodrow Wilson, President during World War I, was a successful scholar, teacher, university president and political leader before becoming President. When the war was over, President Wilson delivered to Congress his famous "Fourteen Points" as a guide toward peace and the establishment of the League of Nations.