

Mississippi State Waterfowl

The wood duck was chosen as the state waterfowl in 1974. Mississippi is home to a million acres of game habitat - some of which is used for duck hunting. Male wood ducks are easily spotted by their deep emerald head plumage and white collars. They also have distinctive grey wings that stand out against a dark brown body.

© REALLY BIG COLORING BOOKS®, INC. | COLORINGBOOK.COM
ALL RIGHTS RESERVED

©2022 Really Big Coloring Books®, Inc.
All rights reserved.

