

Flag of Peru - El Pendón Bicolor, La Enseña Nacional

Adopted on February 25, 1825.

Vertical triband with red outer bands and a single white middle band. Red represents the blood that was spilled for the fight for independence, and white represents peace and bravery. Flag day in Peru is celebrated on June 7, the anniversary of the Battle of Arica.

