

Silicone Mermaid Tail Coloring Chart

www.themermaidtailor.com

Having your own custom color combination on your new mermaid tail will set you apart from the other mermaids and mermen with a tail. As a new tail owners, you want your tail to be unique and one of a kind. You can pick and choose almost any colors you wish to have throughout your new silicone mermaid tail. There are typically there 4 main color accents on a mermaid tail which include the Shading Color: the darkest color that outlines the tail, the Dominant Color: the main color of the tail, the Accent Color: accents the main colors of the tail, and lastly the Highlight Color: lightest and brightest color that gives the mermaid tail a final pop of character. You may also desire to add stripes, polka dots, or other types of fish related markings. Remember to have fun and be original with your color combinations!

Mermaid Tail Color Map

-  Shading Color
Typically most darkest, outer color of the tail
-  Dominant Color
Main base color of the tail
-  Accent Color
A brighter color that compliments the dominant color of the tail
-  Highlight Color
The brightest, most centered color of the tail

