

Charon: Charon was the ferryman who took souls into the underworld over the river Styx. Charon would only ferry the souls over the river if they presented a bribe (usually in the form of a coin placed in the mouth of the corpse).