

If you get lost when you are shopping with your parents or another trusted adult...

- Never ask a stranger to help you find the person you came with.
- Never go to the parking lot to look for the person you came with.
- Never, never let a stranger take you by the hand.