

Chorus Line

The story of A Chorus Line looks a day in the life of seventeen dancers all of whom are auditioning and competing for an open spot on the "chorus line" of a hit musical on Broadway. Part of the audition process is for each dancer to talk about themselves and what they would want others to know. As each shares their story, we see the different struggles dancers face as they try to "make it big" on Broadway.

