

Northern Cardinal

The Northern Cardinal is a common mid-sized songbird across the eastern United States. Males are brilliant red with a black face. The female is mostly grayish brown with a slight reddish tint on the wings. The bill is red and the feet are a dark pink-brown.

© Birdorable

Blue Jay

The Blue Jay is a common backyard bird in North America. It has a pronounced crest which may be raised or lowered according to the bird's mood. Its plumage is blue in the crest, back, wings and tail. Its face is white. The underside is off-white and neck is collared with black. The tail is barred with black, blue and white. The bill, legs and eyes are all black.

© Birdorable

See the colors and more cute birds at www.birdorable.com