

Prairie Crocus

- The prairie crocus or pasque flower is Manitoba's provincial flower.
- This flower blooms in spring, around Easter ('pasque' is French for Easter).
- It has lavender blossoms with yellow centers and is a member of the buttercup family.
- It was made the provincial flower on March 16, 1906.