

Woodrow Wilson wanted to keep America from entering the conflict in Europe, but on April 6, 1917 war was declared on Germany and Austria.