

Oregon Grape

- The Oregon grape flowers in the summer, followed by dark blue berries that ripen late in the fall.
- The berries provide food for wildlife and can be used in cooking.
- became the state flower of Oregon in 1899.