

King Solomon, the son of David, was the wisest of all kings. Once two women claimed to be the mother of the same child.