

Every May, female sea turtles come out of the water up onto the beach to dig a big hole and lay about 120 eggs. They cover the hole with sand and return to the ocean.