

Moses led the Israelites out of Egypt. There were Egyptian soldiers chasing the Israelites when they arrived at the Red Sea. When Moses raised up his staff, God parted the waters and the Israelites walked through safely! (Exodus 14)