

Camellia

- the Camellia is an evergreen shrub or small tree with with leathery, dark green leaves.
- solitary flowers bloom in February and March.
- made the state flower of Alabama on August 26, 1959.
- the state flower is typically considered to be the red flowered variety.